• 1. Executive Summary & Positioning

Hearthlily (晴萱) occupies a premium niche in Taipei's elderly care market, operating on an ultra-premium, low-volume, high-margin model. Instead of hourly chores, we sell absolute reassurance, dignity, and visual family connection.

By capping clients at 8–10 active families, the founder ensures top-tier curation and frictionless execution. The business is built for overworked local corporate leaders or members of the Taiwanese diaspora in North America/Europe who need a trusted peer-level liaison to manage their parent's wellness.

"In the luxury market, we do not sell time—we sell access, exclusivity, and absolute peace of mind."

• 2. Market & Timing

- A Super-Aged Reality: Taiwan is a super-aged society. Taipei City has the highest concentration in the nation: 24.18% of residents are 65+ (nearly 1 in 4).
- The Private Wealth Market: High-net-worth senior households in districts like Da'an and Xinyi possess massive capital but face technological exclusion, digital security threats, and social isolation.
- Félicia's Moat: Visual storytelling, professional design-led updates, and digital safety coaching. The brand's tech value is anchored by the Hearthlily Family Hub app portal.
