• 1. Executive Summary & Positioning

Hearthlily (晴萱) operates on an ultra-premium, low-volume, high-margin subscription model. Instead of commodity hourly chores, we sell absolute reassurance, dignity, and visual family connection.

By capping clients at 8–10 active families for the solo founder, the business guarantees top-tier curation, zero burnout, and excellent margins. The service is built specifically for overworked Taipei corporate leaders or members of the Taiwanese diaspora in North America/Europe who need a trusted peer-level liaison to manage their parent's digital security, lifestyle, and health.

"When you can't be there, we can. Stay close, even from afar."

• 2. Market & Timing

- A Super-Aged Reality: Taiwan is a super-aged society. Taipei City has the highest concentration in the nation: 24.18% of residents are 65+ (nearly 1 in 4).
- The Private Wealth Market: High-net-worth senior households in districts like Da'an and Xinyi possess massive capital but face technological exclusion, digital security threats, and social isolation.
- Félicia's Moat: Visual storytelling, professional design-led updates, and digital safety coaching. The brand's tech value is anchored by the Hearth Score™ and the secure Family Hub portal.
